DEPECHE MODE NEWS

DEPECHE MODE have just returned from a highly successful sell-out tour of the United Kingdom where one of the best gigs had to be the Ulster Hall in Belfast; everyone was a bit wary of going there for obvious reasons but it was well worth it as they played to a packed house of very appreciative Irish who hardly ever get to see live bands because of the troubles. The DEPECHE MODE Show went down extremely well on the whole tour, with excellent lights by a young New Zealand girl; it was on the whole a highly entertaining series of concerts for the band and I'm sure the audience too.

RECORD NEWS

Whilst the tour was in progress excellent reports were flooding in from Europe of the chart success of DEPECHE MODE's current album 'Construction Time Again'. In Germany it reached Number 7 in the charts, whilst in Belgium, Sweden, Switzerland and France it has also been doing extremely well, by far outselling 'A Broken Frame' in all countries.

'Love In Itself 2' is presently enjoying chart success as DEPECHE MODE's 9th hit single. Out of interest, the video for the record was filmed in caves in Wales, with a short clip taken at Bristol Colston Hall on this latest tour, by Clive Richardson of Chase Films. He also did the 'Everything Counts' promo in Berlin with the weird Kurdish dancing at the end.

The third in the series of Ltd. Edition 12" records is available this month. The A side has a 7" version of 'Love In Itself 2' whilst the B side has live versions of 'Just Can't Get Enough', 'Photograph of You', 'Shout' and 'Photographic', recorded at Hammersmith Odeon last October. I'm sorry but I am unable to obtain any and do not know which shops stock them.

TELEVISION

This month DEPECHE MODE are appearing on a new BBC show called 'Showbusiness!'.
