

THE DEPECHE MODE FAN CLUB: P.O. BOX 982, LONDON NW1 6EZ

Hello!

There've been quite a few changes since the last Newsletter, not least the fact that I'm not who you think I am! (Are you following me?) Mariko, who's been running the Information Service for the past couple of years has now left us. That leaves me to introduce myself. My name's Jo (no, not that Jo, she's far too busy preparing for Motherhood) and I'll be organising the Fan Club from now on. Oh yes, that's another difference. From now on, we'll be known as The Depeche Mode Fan Club, rather than Information Service. We've even got ourselves a new address. Although anything sent to the old box number will be forwarded. The address is: THE DEPECHE MODE FAN CLUB
P.O. BOX 982
LONDON NW1 6EZ

The yearly subscription will also be going up but don't worry, you won't have to pay any more money until your current membership runs out, then I'll send you the details. You'll all be issued with membership cards and numbers very soon.

In the very near future, we hope to swap the regular Newsletter for a magazine, featuring colour photographs and you'll be receiving a few extra surprises from time to time. Regular newsletter features such as penpals and lyrics will find their way into the magazine too. I expect you to do some work too! If there's anything you'd like to see in the magazine or even write yourself send it in! That goes for drawings and birthday dedications - anything! We'd also like to include a letters page, so if you want to praise or sound off about anything - feel free!

As befits an up-and-coming Fan Club, we need a new logo. This is your chance to make your mark in the world - design one for us! We'll choose the five best, then leave it up to the band to choose their favourite. Then we'll use it forever and ever! The winner will receive a mystery prize (that means we haven't decided what it is yet!) and all five finalists will be printed in the magazine. The only stipulation is that it must prominently feature our new address (see above) but other than that it's up to you! Please mark entries 'LOGO' and post them in time to reach us by December 1st.

MORE TOUR NEWS

A number of you have written asking if Depeche Mode will be playing any dates in Ireland. Sadly, the answer is no at the moment. Due to the packed schedule on the tour, there were only three weeks in which the band could have played in Ireland, and unfortunately there were no suitable venues available for that period. This of course doesn't mean that they won't be playing any Irish dates in the near future.

COMPETITION

How would you like to come to London, accompanied by a friend, spend the day sightseeing (or whatever!) go to Wembley in the evening to watch Depeche Mode in concert, then troop backstage to meet the band afterwards?

Not to mention a good night's kip at a Hotel and then home again in the morning piled high with goodies and memories? Sounds good? - I thought so. All you have to do is tell me what you think a BONG is? (Not what the dictionary says, I can look that up myself) Please only enter if you know you can make the trip on January 12th. Mark entries 'BONG' and get them to us by December 1st please.

NEWS

The release date of MUSIC FOR THE MASSES is September 28th in Britain. Make sure you buy it! Those of you in the London area might like to wait until Thursday 1st October as the band will be in the new HMV Store at Oxford Circus at 6pm signing copies of the album.

Most of you will have heard by now about the episode outside 'The Sky Bar' in the Vaakuna Hotel in Helsinki, where the band were refused entry because they were wearing jeans - for those of you who don't know, they all promptly disappeared and returned five minutes later not wearing their jeans - only their underpants! Obviously the bouncers on the door hadn't read the 12th September issue of Mojo where Dave was quoted as saying that he can walk into a club "wearing jeans, a torn T-shirt and a leather jacket and they've got to let us in". Well.....p'raps not!

Other goings on in the wacky(?) world of DM have been a huge amount of TV appearances in Europe and Britain. Most of the end of August and the beginning of September were taken up with catching flights and grabbing 40 winks wherever and whenever possible, although the band did go to a party in Munich, with their German Record Company, Intercord - and nobody will tell me what happened!!! The lightning TV tour began in Oslo and finished in Paris, DM having done a staggering 17 TV appearances!

When you go to see Depeche Mode in concert (as I'm sure you've already bought your tickets) please don't take any recording or Video equipment along with you. You can, of course take normal, instamatic-style cameras. Any really good pics you take can always be sent to the magazine! (Don't panic, I'll send them back!)

There's a half-hour compilation video planned for sometime after Christmas. No specific details as yet although I do know that it'll feature DM's most recent videos plus some never-before-seen album tracks - More news next issue!

On the subject of videos, DM hope to film some of the Music For The Masses Concerts with the hope of releasing it in video form sometime next year. Make sure you look your best at whatever concert you go to as you may find yourself being filmed!

Fancy going to see DM in Cologne? There's a trip organised by MGP departing from London on November 4th in the evening, arriving in Cologne the following morning. The price is £85.00 which includes: Concert ticket, One nights 1st class hotel accomodation, Continental Breakfast, Luxury Coach transport from London, Cross Channel Ferry (Sealink), Free time in Cologne, Experienced Courier, and insurance against concert cancellation. I really don't know how the band manage to stay so slim! I got a look at the dressing room requirements for the American leg of the Tour (dates next issue) and the food alone would put three stone in weight on me if I only looked at it! For one day they have:

1 quart spring water
1 quart unsweetened Orange juice
4 cans 7-Up
4 cans Coca-Cola
4 cans Orangeade
