DEPECHE MODE NEWS

As Dave sadly failed his driving test a while ago he's now taking another one on November 24th so it's all fingers crossed again!

Many of you who attended the recent concerts in Great Britain may have noticed or even bought the grey tour t-shirts and scarves on sale outside the venues, unfortunately these were bootleg items sold by pirate merchandisers and are of very poor quality; therefore I can accept no responsibility for, or exchange nor refund for them.

The BBC recorded one of the Hammersmith Odeon shows for the British Forces Radio but unfortunately have no plans to broadcast it on Radio One.

After many request the order of songs played on the recent tour was: 'Everything Counts', 'Now This is Fun', 'Shame', 'See You', 'Get the Balance Right', 'Love In Itself', 'Pipeline', 'And Then', 'Photographic', 'Told You So', 'New Life', 'More Than a Party', 'Meaning of Love', 'Just Can't Get Enough' 'Boys' or 'Work Hard'.

RECORD NEWS

DEPECHE MODE will be recording a completely new single in the New Year. There will not be a Ltd. Edition 12" to accompany it.

TELEVISION

I'm sorry to say that 'Showbusiness' will not now be showing the interview they recorded with DEPECHE MODE.

'Razzamataz' will be broadcasting a 'DEPECHE MODE Special' featuring four album tracks in January.

Peter Powell hopes to be recording an 'Oxford Rd Show Special' with the group in February. It will be filmed at a one off concert in a large but as yet unknown venue in England. I will have definite news next month.

The expected USA and Canada Tour has unfortunately been postponed but DEPECHE MODE hope to do some shows there in early 1984.
